Rules and Regulations

Application Process

- The representative who submitted the Reservation and Use Agreement must be present at the Library before staff will open the meeting room to the group, and he or she must be present throughout the scheduled meeting. It is the responsibility of the person submitting the application to ensure compliance with the code restrictions relating to meeting room occupancy limits and with fire and safety regulations. The person submitting the form shall be responsible for the willful or accidental damage of the Library building, grounds or equipment and shall be responsible for the prompt reimbursement to the Library for any damage to Library building, grounds or equipment.
- The person submitting the application and any group or persons using the meeting rooms must indemnify and hold harmless the Orland Park Public Library, its Board of Trustees, all Library staff, and the Village of Orland Park for any and all accidents which may occur on Library premises while they are here.
- Application must be made on an approved form and by a qualified officer or representative of the group, eighteen years or older. This means the applicant must be a member, officer, or agent of the sponsoring organization.
- Applicants must provide a contact name and phone number.
- Meeting rooms must be reserved at least ten (10) business days in advance. Meeting rooms may be reserved no more than three months in advance.
- The Library Director or her/his designee will have complete administrative responsibility for approval of applications and scheduling programs.
- Reservations are not final until confirmed by email and/or phone call by the Library staff.
- Authorization to use the meeting room is not transferable to another organization.
- The use of the meeting room shall be scheduled in order by priority and then by date on the application.
- The Library reserves the right to request any group to change its approved schedule to another date. Notice will be given to the person signing the application.
- Library staff will not be available to make room arrangement changes or to provide support services such as carrying equipment or materials into or around the Library, operating audio-visual equipment, making photocopies or handling attendee registration for a scheduled meeting.
- A group may make a maximum of twelve (12) meeting room reservations per year.
- Groups should notify the Library of a cancellation as soon as possible at 708-428- 5205, but no less than 24 hours in advance. Repeated cancellations or unused reservations (2 or more within a 12 month period) will result in denial of meeting room use for three (3) months.

- In the event of an emergency closing of the Library, all reservations are automatically cancelled and any fees will be refunded. Library staff will attempt to inform the contact person of the closing.
- Email and/or phone call notification will be sent to users being denied use of the meeting room, stating the reasons for denial. This notification will be sent within five (5) business days of the receipt of the application.
- Users who have been denied permission to use the meeting rooms based on reasons other than availability, may appeal such denial to the Board of Trustees at the Board's next regularly scheduled meeting. Written notice of that appeal and all written documentation supporting that appeal must be delivered to the Library at least five (5) business days before the Board meeting.
- Meeting rooms are to be used for no longer than three (3) hours for any one meeting room booking.
- The library reserves the right to send its own staff to promote its collection and services for the first ten minutes of any scheduled meeting.

Access

- Organizations must comply with applicable Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) requirements when using Library meeting rooms, and are responsible for providing (and if necessary paying for) qualified interpreters or auxiliary aids, upon request, to individuals who require certain accommodations that would enable them to observe and/or participate in the meeting. Any person who will require such an accommodation is requested to notify the organization.
- Any telephones located in the meeting rooms are for Library staff and emergency use only. Groups and organizations cannot make or accept phone calls in Library meeting rooms with Library-owned equipment.

Prohibited Uses and Activities

- The meeting rooms will not be available to any groups for the following:
  - Commercial ventures for which admission is charged, or at which a collection is taken, sales made or funds raised. - Saturday: 9:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. in Meeting Room 102.
- Sunday: 1:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. in Meeting Room 102.
- Groups may arrive at the meeting room 30 minutes before the meeting begins. All meeting rooms must be vacated no later than 8:45 p.m.

General Rules for Use of Meeting Rooms

- Use of the meeting rooms may not interfere with the normal operations of the Library.
- The Library is not responsible for equipment, supplies, materials, or personal possessions owned by those sponsoring or attending a meeting or activity.
- If children are present, they must be under adequate and proper adult supervision at all times. One (1) adult must be present for each ten (10) children in attendance.
- Groups may not use the Library's address or phone number as the organization's contact point.
- The Library will not provide storage space for equipment or supplies for groups using the meeting rooms.

Room Set-Up

- Only theater-style seating is available in Room 104, which is the large meeting room, with the exception of government groups.
- Equipment available includes projection screen, podium, microphones, tables and chairs, video projector, and Internet access. Equipment must be requested on the application and will be supplied subject to equipment and staff availability.
- Library staff will not be available to make room arrangement changes or to provide support services such as carrying equipment or materials into or around the Library, making photocopies or handling attendee registration for a scheduled meeting.

Food

- Only non-alcoholic beverages and cold foods, such as light snacks or box lunches may be served in the meeting rooms. Catered meals, other than box lunches, must be approved by the Public Information Manager.
- The following food items are not permitted in the meeting rooms:
  - red and/or blue drinks
  - red, blue, black and/or other dark-colored frosting
- Tablecloths are required if doing crafts and/or food.
- Food preparation is not permitted.
- Hotplates, sterno cooking fuel, and other products that are used to heat food are prohibited.
- All supplies must be provided by the organization.
- Food deliveries must come through the southwest outside entrance in the meeting room area.

Kitchen

- Only one group at a time may reserve the kitchen.
- All paper products, coffee pots, etc. must be provided by the user.

Clean-Up

- The meeting rooms must be returned to their original condition at the end of the meeting. A fee commensurate with the work required, but not less than $25, will be charged if the room is not left in its original condition or the kitchen and serving utensils are not clean. The organization will be barred from further use of the room and the contact person's Library card will be blocked until any such fees are paid.
- No alterations may be made to the room, and nothing attached to the walls.
- Costs for damage resulting from use of the meeting room that requires replacement or professional cleaning will be the responsibility of the organization using the room. The organization will be barred from further use of the meeting rooms and the contact person's Library card will be blocked until such damages are paid.
- Housekeeping supplies are not provided.
- Chairs and tables must be returned to their original position.

Publicity

- Individuals and organizations reserving use of the meeting rooms are responsible for their own publicity.
- All publicity must state that the Orland Park Public Library is not a sponsor of this organization and its program.
- All promotional materials posted or distributed at the Library must be submitted to the Public Information Manager for approval and posting.
- The location of the Library should be publicized, but the Library's telephone number may not be used for any purpose.
- The Library is not to be included as a source of further information.
- The Library will not handle attendee registrations or take messages for program participants.

Non-Compliance

- Failure to comply with the above regulations will result in loss of meeting room privileges.

These regulations are not-all-inclusive: approval of individual meeting situations not described here will be determined by the Library Director. Waiver of any prohibitions in these procedures must be requested by written application directed to the Library Director.

Procedures and/or rules and regulations are developed in conjunction with a policy and are subject to change on an as needed basis.
